I am currently scientific collaborator (post-doc) at the Laboratory of Cognitive Neurosciences (LNCO) which is directed by Prof. Olaf Blanke.

Before this, I was assistant professor for 4 years (2005-2009) at the department of Software and Media Technology at Aalborg University (Denmark) in Esbjerg and Copenhagen and researcher at the Sensorama Laboratory.

I received my Ph.D. in "Computer graphics and virtual reality" in 2005 from the Ecole Polytechnique Fédérale de Lausanne for my research work on virtual reality exposure therapy for social phobia. This work was the result of 4 years (2001-2005) of research at the VRLab under the supervision of Prof. D.Thalmann.

I also have a DEA (M.Sc.) in "Computer sciences and artificial intelligence" (2000, Louis Pasteur University, LSIT, Strasbourg, FR) and an engineering diploma (M.Sc.) in "Computer science, software and knowledge engineering" (1997, UTBM, CS department, Belfort-Montbéliard, FR).
